

The World's Easiest Piratical Puzzle

Illustration by Howard Pyle

Avast and pay heed, ye scurvy bunch of landlubbers in search of booty and the glory of the high seas. There be a most piratical puzzle to be found here and it be the most easy a puzzle ever to see the light o'day. Most ev'ry answer in this here puzzle that be of five letter or more can be found in the three published excerpts of the most excellent "Pirate King" penned by that most peerless wench, Laurie R. King, herself a bit of a pirate, methinks. So just cipher out the right words and put 'em in the right berths. Yo ho ho.
